We respectfully call upon Tathagata Amida to enter this Dojo, as we joyfully scatter flowers of welcome. We respectfully call upon Tathagata Shakyamuni to enter this Dojo, as we joyfully scatter flowers of welcome. We respectfully call upon Tathagata of the ten directions to enter this Dojo, as we joyfully scatter flowers of welcome.

Five years ago the Los Angeles Hompa Hongwanji Buddhist Temple embarked on the 50th Anniversary fundraising campaign to commemorate its 50th Anniversary of the historic move from the original site on Central Avenue and 1st Street to our present location on 1st and Vignes Street. The funds would go towards repairing, replacing and refurbishing 50 years of wear and tear on the Betsuin.

Those five years quickly passed, but we were able to complete many of the projects that we set out as our goal and then some. The restoration of our naijin (altar), air conditioning in our kaikan, replaced heating/ventilation/air condition in all upstairs and downstairs rooms and several other much needed repairs around our temple were some the projects that were completed.

To culminate the five years of fundraising and the completion of refurbishing the naijin, and other projects, the 50th Anniversary Committee planned two days of special services and a banquet. We were especially honored by Gomonshu Kojun Ohtani attending our services and banquet.

It was truly the efforts of so many people that made our 50th celebration such a wonderful event. I would like to express my sincerest appreciation gratitude to all those who devoted so much of their time and effort into making this celebration a success. Of course, to all those who contributed to the 50 Anniversary fundraiser. It is truly heartwarming that so many of our members, friends and friends of our community came together to make this event so meaningful.

As I reflect upon the weeks and days leading to the 50th Anniversary events as well as the celebration itself, there are so many wonderful memories that filled my heart.

One such memorable moment was during the

BUDDHA’S WISH

by Rev. Koho Takata

On September 7th & 8th, 2019, long awaited Commemoration Service for the 50th Anniversary of the Current Temple Site was officiated by the Kojun Ohtani Gomonshu-sama, the 25th resident minister of the Jodo Shinshu Hongwanji-ha in Kyoto, Japan. Also the related events were observed by many dedicated members. I was truly grateful to receive the teaching from Gomonshu-sama who is a spiritual leader and a direct descendent of Shinran Shonin, founder of our school.

At the Opening Ceremony of the Dharma Center, Gomonshu-sama delivered his message and quoted Shinran Shonin’s saying. It was “The true essence of the Pure Land way is the consummation of Mahayana Buddhism.” I understand that it signifies the teaching and working of Amida Buddha’s Primal Vow never change and are universal for anyone without regard to time and place.

The true essence of the Pure Land way is the selected Primal Vow and the selected Primal Vow is the true teaching which was clarified by Shinran Shonin. Gomonshu-sama taught us how those who walk the path of the Pure Land way and hear the selected Primal Vow should live in this defiled world.

Shinran Shonin sent many letters to his followers and he wrote that we are always drunk with ignorance of sake in our daily lives in one of his letters. We are always drunk with the mind of greed – becoming greedy for what is convenient for us. We are drunk with the mind of anger – upset with what is inconvenient for us. We are drunk with the mind of ignorance – we are unaware of our self-centered nature. Shinran Shonin said we are always drunk with the mind of greed, anger, and ignorance and we do not realize this drunkenness and still tend to pretend to be a smart and good person. Shinran Shonin added that there is a way to “cool off” from the drunkenness with ignorance of sake. It is the Buddha-Dharma. By hearing the true mind and heart of Amida Buddha in our daily lives we will be able to reflect upon our true nature, acknowledge our ignorant and selfish nature, and follow the Nembutsu way of life by lighting up Amida Buddha’s Wisdom to our egoism.

Gomonshu-sama provided the following guidance in his message titled “A Way of Living as a Nembutsu Follower.” “By listening to the Primal Vow and how it was established by Amida Tathagata, we are enabled to become conscious of our own ignorance and self-oriented inclinations, and through such awareness, we naturally become gentle in word and deed in our efforts of minimizing our egocentric way of thinking.”

Gomonshu-sama also provides the following guidance in his message entitled “Our Pledge.” “In truly appreciating the Buddha’s compassionate aspiration directed to each one of us, we naturally become enabled to aspire to act and speak in accordance with the Buddha’s wish and feel joy and sadness of others as our own.”

The manifestation of the Buddha’s Primal Vow or Compassionate Aspiration is reaching to me in the form of the Name with Boundless Wisdom and Compassion. By single-mindedly hearing the cause and effect of the establishment of the Primal Vow of Amida Buddha and entrusting myself to the constant working of “Namo Amida Butsu,” I am enabled to realize my small minded self-centered nature that I am a person who is always imperfect and incapable, always led by my ignorance to the truth, and yet I had been already encompassed by the perfection of the true reality, Namo Amida Butsu, as I am. I understand that Shinran Shonin truly appreciated the Primal Vow which enabled him to realize his true nature and express his deep appreciation by reciting “Namo Amida Butsu” from his profound reflection and gratitude.

Let us keep hearing the Amida Buddha’s Primal Vow and continue to live in accordance with the teaching as Nembutsu followers.

When people are not in correspondence with the Primal Vow,
Various conditions arise to trouble and confuse them.
To lose sight of shinjin in confusion is to “lose right-mindedness.”

50TH ANNIVERSARY MESSAGE

by Ernest Hida

After five years of planning and preparations, the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Current Temple Site on September 7th and 8th.

On September 7th, the Opening Ceremony of the Dharma Center was held with Go-Monshu-sama Kojun Ohtani participating and gave his special message, “A Way of Living as a Nembutsu Follower.” Later, dharma messages based on the Go-Monshu-sama’s message were given by Rimban William Briones, Rev. Koho Takata, Rev. Ryuta Furumoto, and Rev. Masao Kodani. The Dharma Center began five years ago as a pilot program to provide a Buddhist educational center at the Los Angeles Betsuin. Now it is an official on-going program which is open to anyone interested in learning the Buddha dharma.

Later, that evening, the 50th Commemoration Banquet was held at the Quiet Cannon Restaurant with approximately 460 members from the Los Angeles Betsuin and other Southern District temples. The Go-Monshu-sama gave his greetings to everyone. Later, a video was shown of the 50th Anniversary Projects.

The next day on September 8th, the highlight of the celebration was the 50th Anniversary Commemoration Service with the Go-Monshu-sama Kojun Ohtani officiating this auspicious service. It began with a group photo (which you can order at the temple office) with the Go-Monshu-sama and all attendees of the service. Later, the chigo procession began, lead by the children in chigo costumes, followed by the chairpersons of the Betsuin’s Affiliated Organizations, participating ministers, temple president Bessie Tanaka, BCA president Richard Stambul, Betsuin komons, and the Go-Monshu-sama with the Governor General Bishop Keiichi Abe and BCA Bishop Kodo Umezu. The Go-Monshu-sama entered the hondo with the sound of sacred court music played by the Kinnara Gagaku group from Senshin Buddhist Temple.

It was an honor to have this special commemoration service officiated by the Go-Monshu-sama. This was a unique and extraordinary service with precise ceremonial procedures required when the Go-Monshu-sama officiates a service. Participating in this service were Rimban William Briones, Rev. Koho Takata; former Rimbans Rev. Seikan Fukuma, Rev. George Matsubayashi, Rev. Hiroshi Abiko, Rev. Nobuo Miyaji; Rev. Sala Sekiya, Bishop Keiichi Abe and Bishop Kodo Umezu.

In the afternoon, the Go-Monshu-sama performed the Kikyoshiki Ceremony for members to receive their Buddhist name.

We express our sincere gratitude to everyone who attended and participated in the 50th Anniversary Celebration. Everyone’s attendance and participation made it a very special celebration and it conveyed a warm welcome to the Go-Monshu-sama.

We especially express our deepest gratitude to all the volunteers who helped out at all celebration events and programs. Without their help, the events and programs would not have gone smoothly and successfully.

With deep gratitude, I sincerely express my heartfelt thank you to our ministers and committee members for their dedication, support and perseverance for the past five years with the planning and preparation for this auspicious celebration, the establishment of the Dharma Center and the completion of various projects to improve and maintain the temple for the future generations. The main project was the renovation of the onaijin/altar and in addition, for comfort, the renovation of the air conditioning system. They all worked so hard and spent many hours meeting, planning, preparing and completing their responsibilities. Thank you so much.

Thank you to all ministers and members, past and present, who were a part of the legacy of this temple. Okagesama for all of your contributions, support and active involvement in the temple that made it possible to reach this historic milestone. We look forward to a bright future with all of your support and dedication.

Thank you very much.

EITAIKYO (SANGHA MEMORIAL) SERVICE

by Rev. Koho Takata

The members of Los Angeles Hompa Hongwanji Buddhist Temple and their families are invited to attend the annual Eitaikyo Sangha Memorial Service, which is one of the Six Major Services in the Jodo Shinshu tradition to be held on as follows:

Saturday, November 16 at 1:30pm
English Speaker: Rimban William Briones
Japanese Speaker: Rev. Koho Takata

Sunday, November 17 at 10:00am
Guest Speaker: Rev. Nobuo Miyaji (minister emeritus)

Here at the Los Angeles Hompa Hongwanji Buddhist Temple, Eitaikyo or Sangha Memorial Service is observed not as a means of accumulating virtues to be directed to others but taken as a solemn occasion to express one’s dedication to the sangha. Sutra chanting, rituals, and donations done by Sangha in the service are symbolic expressions of their dedication and appreciation.

The term Eitaikyo, an abridgement of eitai-dokkyo, means the perpetual chanting of the sutra in memory of the deceased, signifying that all those who have passed away lived in the Teachings of the Buddha. This signification gives each of us a chance to affirm our own understanding of Buddhism because of the guidance of the Buddha through our loved ones. Such affirmation gives us the precious opportunity to see how the dharma has helped in our lives and to realize oneness of life. It means we are all connected. Acknowledging our dharma connection to those who have passed away empowers us to further pursue the path of the Buddha, dharma, and sangha, which have been our spiritual treasures. The great virtue that may be accumulated in Jodo Shinshu Buddhism is through the practice of the dharma in our daily lives.

BODHI DAY (ENLIGHTENMENT SERVICE)

by Rev. Koho Takata

The members of Los Angeles Hompa Hongwanji Buddhist Temple and their families are invited to attend the annual Bodhi Day Service, which is the observance of Buddha’s Enlightened Day to be held on Sunday, December 8, 2019.

The number “8” is very significant for Buddhists. On April 8th, we celebrate the birth of the historical Buddha. On December 8th, we celebrate the attainment of Enlightenment of Shakyamuni Buddha. And, Shakyamuni Buddha showed us the Eightfold (8) Path to end the life of sufferings.

We have four basic sufferings - birth, aging, illness, and dying. We also have four additional sufferings - separation from loved one, having to live with someone or some situation one does not like, non-fulfillment of one’s most cherished desires, and physical and mental limitation.

What is the cause of those sufferings? The cause of suffering is “I” (our ignorance). We human always carry the mind of greed, anger, and hatred. Although we do not want to have such minds, they come upon us one after another to distress us. However, Shakyamuni Buddha showed us how to end the suffering by practicing the Eightfold Path. Our life can be filled with light in sharing life with others. It is a simple truth to learn, but a difficult practice to fully realize. We, Buddhists, have precious opportunities to share with our Sangha the true meaning of life as experienced in the practice of the Nembutsu teachings. If each of us realizes the true meaning of life taught by Shakyamuni Buddha, it certainly could be a cause that could change our self-centered society of disharmony to happy, harmonious, and peaceful world. Let us practice the teachings of the Buddha in our daily lives and realize our ignorance and oneness of all life.

“Altar Decorations”
by Rev. Russell Hamada,
March 1, 1989, JIHO

As prescribed by Hompa Hongwanji tradition, the arrangement of altar decorations periodically change depending upon circumstance and occasion. It would be a great mistake to believe that politics and/or finances determine how we adorn our altar.

As it is mentioned throughout the sutras, including the Larger Sutra of Eternal Life (Daimuryojukyo), the three major elements of Light (candles), Flowers and Incense are to be utilized as adornments for all objects of reverence.

Traditionally, the most common arrangement of the three elements is called Mitsugusoku (Three-Element-Arrangement). Here, as one faces the altar, a candle is placed to the right representing the world of Enlightenment (Nirvana) and to the left a floral arrangement representing the world of Birth and Death (Samsara). In the center is found an incense burner.

Incense not only permeates the atmosphere with a religious hue, but also symbolizes the oneness of birth and death. When incense is lit, it seemingly comes to life as a room is filled with smoke and fragrance, however it is also the beginning of its own death as it burns to ashes. For this reason, the incense burner is placed in the center symbolizing the Oneness of the ever-changing world of Samsara and the eternal unchanging world of Nirvana. This corresponds to Oneness as expressed in the Name, Namoamidabutsu. Namo representing “me” (the world of Samsara) and Amida Buddha (the world of Truth or Nirvana).

On more formal occasions, the three elements are arranged in Gogusoku (Five-Element-Arrange-ment), which consists of two floral arrangements, two candlesticks and one in-cense burner. Here, the floral arrangements are placed on the outside, with the two candle stands on the inside and the incense burner in the center. The significance of the basic three elements is the same as with Mitsugusoku.

According to guidelines established by Hompa Hongwanji in Kyoto, the type of service being held dictates the

by Vicki Kassa

On August 18, 2019 close to 200 people gathered at the Nishi Hongwanji Buddhist Temple Kaikan to celebrate 50 years of scouting with Troop #738. The troop was established once the temple moved to the present location and was comprised of six charter scouts. Scout Master Sayano and some of the scouts migrated from the Troop at Koysan Temple. From this humble beginning the troop has impacted almost 300 scouts and produced 106 Eagle Scouts. The troop received letters of commendation from Governor Newsome, Mayor Garcetti, Senator Feinstein, Los Angeles County and Los Angeles City officials.

There have been seven Scout Masters in the history of the troop. They were presented with plaques to recognize the leadership they have provided for the Scouts. Shoichi Sayano was the first Scout Master of Troop 738. He was our first speaker. We heard from each, in the order of their time as Scout Master; Kenji Hatakeyama, Richard Odagawa, Kenny Imazumi, Bill Sato, Alan Hatakeyama and the current Scout Master Matt Chavez.

In addition former scout Derek Escano, current Eagle Scouts Kotaro Chavez and Matthew Mayemura, as well as current Senior Patrol Leader Justin Chu spoke to our guests. It was wonderful to hear from our past, present and future community leaders.

The delicious dinner was provided by Rutts Hawaiian Café.
2019 PADMA AWARD SCOUT TRIP
by Eileen Nozaki, Nishi Girl Scout Troop Leader

In late July, Rev. Kaz Nakata led a small contingent of Scouts on his fifth annual Padma/Sangha road trip to the San Francisco bay area. The three-day trip is a culmination, following a year’s worth of Buddhist teachings, per the Girl Scout’s Padma and Scouts BCA’s Sangha pin requirements.

This year three Cadette Girl Scouts - Kiyomi Banta, Tatsumi Capela, and Airi Montoya - were the fortunate Scouts to enjoy the religious and cultural sights in the Bay area. Girl Scout co-leader Eileen Nozaki and Girl Scout graduate Mia Forsline rounded out the single carload of participants.

Over the next few issues, as space allows, each of the Scouts’ written memories will appear.

By Kiyomi Banta:
I had so much fun on my first Padma trip to Northern California with Rev. Kaz, Ms. Eileen, Ms. Eileen’s daughter Mia, and my fellow Padma students. We woke up early on Monday to go drive to San Francisco in Rev. Kaz’s very comfortable van together. We got to explore Fisherman’s Wharf and all of the tourist attractions we were interested in. We stayed in a beautiful Buddhist Temple in Berkeley where we slept for two nights, where we had access to a kitchen and showers.

We went on a hike in Muir Woods and we got to explore Fisherman’s Wharf and all of the tourist attractions we were interested in. We stayed in a beautiful Buddhist Temple in Berkeley where we slept for two nights, where we had access to a kitchen and showers.

We went on a hike in Muir Woods and we got to explore Japan Town and visit the San Francisco Buddhist Temple where the very first Buddhist Temple was built in California. My absolute favorite part of the trip was waking up from my nap in the car to see that we were driving on the Golden Gate Bridge but everybody else was still sleeping in the car, and instead of waking them up, I started taking photos of them asleep with the bridge out the window and they could not believe that they slept through that.

We did do a lot of sightseeing and adventuring all the time that I couldn’t blame how we all took a nap any time we could. When I was away from my family for three days and two nights, I learned even more independent life skills in a whole different city like how to spend my money wisely, stick together, stay in contact, be aware of my surroundings, and even how to make my own stir fry for the first time. After we completed our adventuring in San Francisco and Berkeley, we got to attend one of San Jose Buddhist Temple’s morning services for the preschool kids. It reminded us about when we were their age at Nishi Center! We all had such a wonderful time learning exploring!

In the September-October issue of the Betsuin Jiho, it was announced that Kotaro Chavez and Kaylee Takata were the recipients of the 2019 BWA Scholarships. Kotaro’s essay was published in that issue. Below is Kaylee’s essay answering the question: “What Jodo Shinshu means to me and how does it apply to my daily life?”

Has anyone ever told you how much group projects suck? Teachers randomly assign you to classmates you’ve never talked before, thinking that somehow you are going to magically get along and do well on the assignment. Depending who’s in your group, you could end up with someone who’s motivated or someone who thinks other people are going to get their work done for them.

I remember the second my teacher announced a group project in a class I had no close friends with, my stomach felt as if it was flipping inside out. I dreaded having to work with people who I wasn’t too familiar with because what they will do is unpredictable. Walking into the classroom, I nervously look up to see the list of names displayed on the board. The people I was with were not the best nor the worst people. As I joined to meet them, I noticed that one was present looking around the classroom for me while the other was not present. Jannine, the person who was present the first day of our project seemed reliable but Kyle the other student was often absent. The two of us exchanged numbers saying we will keep in contact with each other during the duration of the project.

As time progressed, I stopped contacting my group mates as I attempted to finish the project. Internally I was fearful of the possibility of failing especially since this was the final project of the semester. At times, I would complain to my friends about how uncooperative my teammates were and how I had to take all the responsibilities for it.

However, as I am reminded by the everyday teaching of Jodo Shinshu, we all have a self-centered nature. My mind was filled with trying to complete my project myself and getting frustrated over how the others were taking credit for my work when I never relied on them to begin with. The teachings which we are taught emphasize the importance of accepting people regardless of their flaws and differences.

Throughout the project, I had realized the cold treatment I had towards the people around me, only focusing on myself. Naturally, every person is filled with their own ego, continuously thinking for themselves. Moreover, it is because Amida Buddha appreciates us as the people we are, we should learn to respect others.

After confronting to my group members about the approach we should take towards this assignment, we settled on splitting the work evenly. At first, I was partly worried about trusting the work to my group members but initiating a conversation with them, we were able to successfully finish the project on time.

Commemoration Service, where Gomonshu-sama was the officiant. I, along Rev. Sala Sekiya, from the Gardena Buddhist Church with the former Rimbans of the Los Angeles Betsuin, had processed into the naijin, followed by Gomonsho-sama. After Sekiya Sensei and I took our proper position. We lead with the chanting of Sambujo.
Sambujo is literally translated as “The Three Respectful Invitations”.
The first verse:

“We respectfully call upon Tathagata Amida
 to enter this Dojo
 As we joyfully scatter flowers of welcome”

The chant continues welcoming Shakyamuni Buddha as well as the Buddhas of the Ten Quarters.

Sambujo is a short introductory piece, used at the beginning of many Jodo Shin Buddhist services. The verse was written almost 1300 years ago by Shan-tao (Jpn. Zendo), the fifth Patriarch of Jodo Shinshu Buddhism. It is taken from the Hojisan, a commentary on the sutra, Amidakyō.
Sambujo is metaphor, a story, that calls and welcomes Amida, Shakyamuni and the Buddhas of the Ten Directions to this dojo….literally “the place where Dharma is cultivated.” Sambujo awakens us to the truth of interdependency and causes and conditions. To awaken with gratitude and appreciation for all those causes and conditions that enable me to be who, what and where I am.

As we chanted Sambujo, in front of the newly refurbished Gohonzon (Statue of Amida Buddha) the very same statue that was purchased some 50 years ago, our voices reverberated with joy, knowing that the lives of all those past members and ministers are still very much part of our Betsuin and are continuing to influence our lives, through their thoughts, words and deeds.

As we continued to chant, I was not only overwhelmed with appreciation and gratitude for our past members but I was moved to tears knowing how our present members worked so hard and sacrificed so much of their time and energy as well as financially to make our newly refurbished naijin a reality.

Finally, I realized how rare it was for me, Bill Briones, a Mexican/Filipino-American, born and raised Catholic, 354 miles from the Betsuin, how rare it was for me to be there at that very moment. I realized how truly fortunate I was to be a part of this precious moment.

It’s these moments of thankfulness and appreciation that open our hearts to joy, fill us with peace, and connect us to those around us. For it is within this realization of the past and present with this life now, that we can pass the teaching of nembutsu on to future generations.

As we reflect upon the Betsuin’s 50th Anniversary celebration, let us truly reflect on the countless causes and conditions that enabled us to be who we are. As we become more aware of the inconceivable causes and conditions of our beautiful temple and the refurbishing our hondo and the many projects that were completed, we are able to inwardly realize the wisdom and compassion of Amida Buddha and outwardly live with gratitude for the life made possible for us not only by the pioneers of the past 114 years but to many of our current members and friends.

It is the responsibility of this generation to keep the light of Buddha-Dharma shining not only for ourselves but for the next generation and for generations yet to come.

Namoamida Butsu
arrangement to be utilized. For example, red candles are to be used on Shinran Shonin's birthday and Mitsugusoku on Ohigan. At a Betsuin, we are bound to rules and regulations that do not affect smaller independent temples.

A Betsuin is considered to be a direct branch of the mother temple in Kyoto (Honzan). Technically, the head minister of a Betsuin is the Gomon-shu, but since he cannot be physically present to care for the day to day activities, his duties are performed by the Rimban (Guardian of the Bell). The Rimban is a representative of the Gomonshu and shall serve in his place.

Therefore, the altar arrangements utilized by our Betsuin have previously been determined by Honzan in Kyoto, and it is our responsibility to conform when possible.

ARE YOU A TEMPLE MEMBER?

Rev. Mas Kodani says that “A member of the temple is someone who comes to it, who plugs in to it — to be energized by its life and contributes to that life energy.”

Temple membership provides stability and health of the temple. It helps to provide the temple with its ministers, the operations, and maintenance of the facilities.

At the LA Betsuin, membership for a single adult is $250 per year. Breaking it down, it’s less than $21 per month. Breaking it down even more — 68¢ per day.

Another factor of the $250 membership is that $143 of it goes to BCA to support the programs.

The year 2020 is just around the corner. Be a member and contribute to and become a vital part of the “life energy.”

Check with the temple office.
